

DAY 1

Vision Day

From Overwhelm to Clarity

Name _____

Date _____

In Lesson 1 of the Find Your Focus Challenge we look at the ONE specific thing you can do to relieve the overwhelm and become excited, motivated and crystal clear on your goals and direction.

And that is to clarify your vision.

There's the textbook idea of creating a vision is all about what you "should" do.

You "should" set goals for rapid growth...
You "should" set huge income targets...
You "should" always dream as big as your inspirations.

Today is different because I believe there is no such thing as the word "should" when it comes to vision.

The textbooks can't tell you what your vision looks like.

I can't tell you what your vision looks like.

Creating a vision is about so much more than ticking boxes and saying the right words. It's about connecting to your heart's desire.

It's about creating a deep connection to what you really want and putting yourself into the vision you want to create.

So, let's get started.

Here's to doing what you love,
